

Small World and Diorama Community Challenge

ASCY
Affiliated Services for Children and Youth

Small world play is creating a life scene for children to play. It is imaginative play where children are provided with small beautiful objects with which to play. This type of play is similar to role play but different in that the child creates the small world and transfers their thoughts and feelings onto the objects.

Displays still available for viewing in the ASCY Professional Resource Library